DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on 11/7/2005 has been entered. The amendments overcome the 112 issues raised in the previous action mailed on 6/9/2005. However, they do raise a new 112 issue which will be addressed below.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 11/7/2005 with respect to Phan US patent No. 6,661,429 and to Tokimoto EP No. 0 869 468 have been fully considered and show the differences between applicants invention and the teachings of these references, however, the claims need to be amended to better claim the invention. The claims do not positively claim each pixel is formed from one of the first, second, and third colors, thus, since the claims are open ended "having" (claim 14) and "comprising" (claim 15) claims then a reference that has red, green and blue lamps at each pixel and where adjacent pixels are caused to emit light based on a different data set would read on the claim. Applicant's specification at page 7 first full paragraph discusses each pixel is one color lamp rather than composed of each of the red, green, and blue color lamps, however, the claims do not positively claim this important feature of applicants invention which assists in differentiating the claims from the prior art of record. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Additionally, these prior art references do not appear to perform in "parallel" the claimed steps, however, as seen below the specification does not support this claim limitation. Thus, the claims need to be amended to better claim the invention and to better distinguish the invention in alignment with that which was disclosed.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement filed 11/7/2005 has been considered and the reference has been lined through because Tokimoto EP No. 0 869 468 was already cited on the 11/22/2000 PTO-1449.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 2-8, 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claims 14 and 15 each claim at step 2 "performing, in parallel, the steps of:". The specification does not describe performing the steps in parallel. The specification at page 9 in the second to last paragraph, in the paragraph spanning pages 9 and 10, in second full paragraph on page 10, first full paragraph and the third paragraph on page 13, and in the paragraph spanning pages 13 and 14 "This action is repeated at a high speed, synchronizing with the red color control." The specification does not manifest "parallel" from the word "synchronizing". The specification does not state how all of the lamps are caused to emit light in parallel. Parallel driving of all of the lamps in parallel would require very specialized display driving circuitry which is not manifested by applicants disclosure.

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 2-8, 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims do not positively claim each pixel is formed from one of the first, second, and third colors since the claims are open ended "having" (claim 14) and "comprising" (claim 15) claims. Applicant's specification at page 7 first full paragraph discusses each pixel is one color lamp rather than composed of each of the red, green, and blue color lamps, however, the claims do not positively claim this important feature of applicants invention which is necessary to clearly claim the disclosed invention. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

9. A prior art rejection cannot be made because the metes and bounds of the claims are not definite and because the specification does not support the claims. Thus, an indication of allowability would be premature. In re Steele, 305 F.2d 859, 134 USPQ 292 (CCPA 1962) (it is improper to rely on speculative assumptions regarding the meaning of a claim and then base a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103 on these assumptions).

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

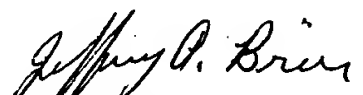

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
